JFK Film Deal

NEW YORK (AP) — Time, Inc., has resold the famed film of President John F. Kennedy's assassination to the Zapruder family for $1, ending protracted negotiations over ownership of the film.

The film, taken by Abrahm Zapruder in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963, was used in the investigation by the Warren Commission which concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald was the sole assassin.

Two days after the shooting, Zapruder sold the film to Time for a reported $25,000. Zapruder died in 1970.

Time said it had been unable to donate the original film and its rights to the National Archives "because of legal obligations to the Zapruder heirs."

Miami Herald 6/21/75